Dear Sir

Re: Revocation of permanent residency status of Jerusalem residents in 2015.

Ref: Your letter dated January 7, 2016

Below please find the response of the professional officials:

In response to Section 1 of your letter, the following are the requested figures:

- a. In 2015, the residency of 84 residents expired,
- b. 33 of them were women,
- c. 2 were minors at the time of expiration.

In response to section 2 of your letter: Out of the number of residents provided in section 1a above, 38 were abroad at the time of expiration.

In response to section 3 of your letter: Figures requested in this section cannot be provided as they are not identified in the Population Administration database.

In response to section 4 of your letter: There has been no change with respect to the answer we provided to HaMoked's request for information regarding expiration of residency of East Jerusalem residents in 2010.

In response to section 5(a) and 5(b) of your letter, please refer to the table below:

Decision	total
No decision	121
